當我上一年級的時候，就有早晨賴在床上不起床的毛病。每天早晨醒來，看到陽光照到玻璃窗上了，我的心裡就是一陣愁：已經這麼晚了，等起來，洗臉，扎辮子，換制服，再到學校去，準又是一進教室被罰站在門邊。同學們的眼光，會一個個向你投過來。我雖然很懶惰，卻也知道害羞呀！所以又愁又怕，每天都是懷著恐懼的心情，奔向學校去。最糟的是爸爸不許小孩子上學坐車的，他不管你晚不晚。

When I was a first year student in elementary school, I developed the bad habit of trying to stay in bed. Every day when I woke up and saw the sunlight shining on the glass window, I began to worry because it must be quite late by then. After I got up, I had to wash my face, braid my hair, put on the uniform and then go to school. But I was sure that I would be punished and asked to stand at the side of the door. Every student will look at you. Although I was lazy, I still knew such a thing called shame. So, every day, worrying and scared, I always went to school in a fearful mood. The worst thing is that my father would not allow kids to go to school by vehicles; he didn't care that you would be late or not.
