I am a cow which is going to be sent to the market and will be killed. I saw a very smart/clever and fat cow. The farmer wanted to sell it, and the smart/clever cow burst into tears. The farmer finally sold it. After it was sold to the butcher, the butcher was going to kill it, and it shed tears again. It looked at me and it seemed to tell me that I would be the next. Before it got killed, it cried sorrowfully. I looked at it as if that was my destiny.
