Gigi likes to eat pizza and drink cola. Yesterday her parents bought three big pizzas and cola. Gigi was so happy that she ate too much. She couldn't go to school today because of her stomachache. Gigi's teacher called her in the afternoon and told her to take more rest. Gigi took a day off and felt much better at night. With the experience, she dares not eat too much pizza, and she will pay more attention to diet in the future. Gigi can go to school tomorrow and she is happy to be healthy again.
